OVERVIEW

Join this tour to explore the old town at Dadaocheng and reminisce the good old days of Taipei. It will be an unique experience to immerse yourself in the history of Taipei.

Walking through one of the oldest streets and listening to the old story of Taipei is the best way to know about Taipei history. The walking tour will starts at MRT Beimen Station. When strolling down the streets, you will observe many European and Japanese-style houses in Datong District, which is known as the oldest town in Taipei. During the tour, you can not only see the ancient architectures but also listen to the history of Taipei at URS 44 (Urban Regeneration Station) story house. In addition, you may make a wish at century-old Xiahai City-God Temple. The Temple is host to statues of the City God, his wife, the Chinese Cupid, and 600 other deities. After visiting the Temple, you are travelling to Yongle Fabric Market. Although it may not be the center of commercial area anymore but it is still the significant place for professional designer and the textile industry. The tour will finish at Ningxia Night Market, where you can enjoy various traditional Taiwan snacks. Then we will walk you to MRT Zhongshen Station and end the tour here.
