

Taiwan Best Hot Spring & Delicacy 4D3N Tour

> Overview

Taiwan is one of the top hot spring destinations with the highest concentration and greatest variety of hot springs in the world. More than one hundred hot springs have been discovered in Taiwan, located in different geological areas including plains, mountains, valleys, and oceans. The highest concentration of hot springs can be found in the northern Taiwan.

This tour will take you to experience the hot springs at Taipei Beitou and Yilan Jiaoxi, both are famous for its luxury hot spring hotels. You can also enjoy different kind of hot spring spa, a fish spa for your feet at Jiaoxi. The best of this tour is that you have an opportunity to taste delicious and various Taiwan cuisine during the tour. It definitely can make your trip more satisfied and diversified.

Since we are travelling to the eastern part of Taiwan and enjoy the hot spring in Yilan, we will also go further south to Hualien and check out the world famous attraction, Taroko Gorge. We will spending one night in Hualien and then head back to Taipei by taking the train in the next day. Then, just sit back and remember to keep your eye out and enjoy the beautiful scenery outside the window.

> Highlights

◆ Beitau Hot Spring Museum

Beitou Hot Spring Museum was built in 1913, which was originally the Beitou Public Bathhouse (the largest bathhouse in the East Asia at that time.) Today it serves to tell Beitou hot spring history and marks the beginning of Beitou hot spring era.

◆ Silks Palace in National Palace Museum

The National Palace Museum is a historical building whose collection of treasures is of the utmost cultural value. From both the current and future perspective, its existence is substantially significant. Silks Palace, located adjacent to museum's Administrative Building to the west of the main exhibition hall, takes on NPM's unique character of tradition, disregarding formalities and pretenses but respecting the environment and, under the mastermind of renowned architect Ren-shi Yao, presenting the spirit of traditional architecture and food culture through modern construction and contemporary touches.

◆ Jiaoxi Hot Springs and Fish Spa

Jiaoxi is the famous township of hot spring in Yilan. Jiaoxi is the location of a ground-level hot spring which is very rare in Taiwan. It is also called "beauty hot spring" due to the rich mineral contained in the water which is therapeutic to the skin. You can enjoy private hot spring at luxurious hotel and also experience unique fish spa that fish will nibble at the dead skin and exfoliate your skin.

Artemis Garden

Artemis Garden is one of the most “sophisticated” farms in Taiwan. The garden is filled with sweet scents and beautiful blooms with the amazingly fragrant flowers. There are more than 150 plant species inside this building. You can smell them, touch them, view them in the close distance. The garden also prepares splendid European deco and the 5-star food and beverage. They serve special dishes which are made from herbs. Imaging you could have lunch under gigantic Osmanthus tree, gardenia tree and camellia tree to create the moments of joy.

Leader Village Aboriginal Cuisine

The Leader Village Taroko Hotel is located on the upper portion of the terrace. Featuring one of the top restaurants in the Taroko region, this hotel delights in serving Western-aboriginal fusion cuisine, which is a taste not to be missed and is surely a taste to experience. The restaurant serves dishes combined western with aboriginal cuisine, which is one of the most featured restaurant in Taroko.
